

2012 - 2013 Scholarship Winner

NICK FOLAND

Tenacity. Determination. Commitment. It was those character traits, and his love of hockey, that helped Nick Foland earn the 2013 Jason Ritchie Scholarship Award. His father, who was his youth hockey coach, instilled a strong work ethic within Nick, and that can-do spirit was exemplified by Nick's willingness to endure a two-hour round trip daily commute to Winchendon, despite his challenging student-athlete schedule. He played junior hockey in Pennsylvania for the Wilkes-Barre / Scranton Knights prior to attending college, where he majors in Finance at Bentley University.
