LAUREN KELLY

"Since playing the Jason Ritchie Foundation hockey game against the Bruins, my life has changed dramatically." Those are the words of the 2014 Jason Ritchie Scholarship Award winner, Lauren Kelly. Not only did she benefit from the financial assistance, but she gained a new perspective on life, taking on Jason's "Life is Energy" mantra. After graduating from Winchendon, Lauren jumpstarted her collegiate student athlete career by taking two summer classes at Northeastern University and beginning strength and conditioning sessions to prepare her for first hockey season as a Lady Husky.
