

2014 - 2015 Scholarship Winner

ADAM LETARTE

Adam Letarte, the 2015 Jason Ritchie Hockey Scholarship Award winner, enjoyed being a multi-sport athlete at Winchendon as a hockey and lacrosse player, in addition to running cross country. Adam's love of hockey began early – he learned to skate at the age of 4 – and was inherited from his father who is French Canadian and has always played hockey. Extremely talented, Adam is also a musician, playing the alto and tenor saxophone, piano and keyboard. At Texas Southern University, Adam plans to pursue his dream of becoming a pilot.
